How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them, and the Lord had shut them up? (Deut. 32:30)

After a meeting one time, a woman came up to me and said, "Brother Hagin, I have an incurable condition in my body. It isn't fatal; that is, it wouldn't kill me. But it might shorten my life five or ten years.

And with the right medication, I can control it. But it is incurable.

"I've been believing God, trying to appropriate healing. But when you told the story about that little girl who stood in the healing line for agreement, it triggered something inside me. I thought, I'm going down there for him to agree with me that I'm healed."

So I prayed, agreeing with her that she was healed.

Some time later, this woman wrote a letter to me and said, "From the moment you agreed with me in the prayer line until now, I haven't had another symptom. In fact, I've been back to the same doctors, and they can't find a trace of the condition.

It has disappeared!"

There is power in agreement. Deuteronomy 32:30 says, "How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight...." One can put a thousand to flight, and two can put ten thousand to flight.

There's power in agreement.

Confession: There is power in agreement. Agreeing with another person based on God's Word brings about desired results.
